Arpit Baliyan

CS Undergrad @Scaler School of Technology (2025–29) | PCMBian
(Maths+Biology) Background | Exploring Tech World
Bengaluru, Karnataka, India

Summary

Hi, I'm Arpit Baliyan, a Computer Science undergrad at Scaler School of Technology (Batch 2025–29) with a PCMB background in higher secondary.

I'm deeply interested in technology, especially agentic AI, and passionate about exploring startups and innovations. Alongside academics, I enjoy delving into diverse domains — from software development to extracurricular activities.

Over the years, I've participated in academic competitions and contributed to creative & leadership roles.

Currently, I'm focused on building a strong CS foundation, exploring AI-driven tech solutions, and preparing to seek opportunities for impactful projects through internships and collaborations.
